SUMMARY

I'm Arzu Goyushova, a versatile junior marketing specialist with over a year of experience in copywriting, website management, SEO, and social media strategy. I enjoy shaping ideas into clear, creative campaigns supported by data and research. Alongside content creation, I have experience in keyword research, sales scripts, and designing marketing materials, as well as coordinating with both international partners and local teams. My goal is to increase brand value and loyalty by combining creativity with an analytical approach.
